Rules to Follow When Placing Your Polycart at the Curb

The City's sanitation division is one of the busiest in the organization. Drivers arrive at 6 a.m. to prepare their trucks and begin their day-long route. Customers must follow a few simple rules to make sure the trash collection runs smoothly. Drivers will leave a sticker on polycarts that cannot be serviced which will notify the customer of the issue. Please take the time to review the rules and help our drivers deliver the best possible service.

- Do not place your cart within 3 feet of any obstruction; multiple polycarts should be set at least 2 ft. apart.
- Do not place your cart under any overhead obstruction.
- Do not overfill or place items on top of the cart. The lid must be closed and no items are to be sticking out.
- Break down cardboard and place loosely in cart.
- No automotive parts.
- No petroleum products or hazardous chemicals.
- No building materials (tile, bricks, boards, concrete, rocks, dirt, etc.)

All household trash must be in a polycart. Trash, including grass clippings, must be bagged and placed inside a polycart for pick-up. Bagged trash set by the curb will not be picked up. Residents may rent a second cart for $7 per month by contacting utility customer service at 405-793-5032.

Polycarts must be at the curb before 7 a.m. on your pickup day. Crews may alter/delay routes as necessary therefore, there is no set time for pick-up. If your polycart has not been emptied by late evening, please notify us on the City's website at cityofmoore.com Report an Issue or leave a message at 405-793-5070.

For large item pick up, please visit cityofmoore.com/bigtrash. This service is free twice per year. Also, vouchers to the landfill, located at 7001 S. Bryant Ave. Oklahoma City, OK 73149, are available for pick up at Customer Service at Moore City Hall, 301 N. Broadway. Each City of Moore utility customer is allowed one free voucher per calendar year.

Part 2 of 3: How the RTA Became Its Own Agency — and Why Moore Left After 2019 the RTA was no longer just a study group. It was its own government entity, still made up of the original six cities. The next big question was how to pay for trains and stations.

The Oklahoma Legislature gave these authorities a narrow path. They can create a taxing district and ask voters in that district to approve a sales tax used only for the transit system. Leaders have talked about a one-cent sales tax in the cities that stay. That extra penny would be collected on taxable purchases and used to fund ONE Transit, along with hoped-for federal dollars.

When the Moore City Council looked at that plan, it did not make sense for our city to stay. Sales tax is how Moore pays for police, fire, streets, and everyday services. Asking Moore families and shoppers to help fund a regional rail system, when the benefit to Moore was not clear, was not a good deal.

Midwest City withdrew in late 2021. Moore and Del City withdrew in June 2022. The trust was later rewritten so only Oklahoma City, Edmond, and Norman remain. Cost was the main reason. We could not ask our residents to pay for a system when the return for Moore was uncertain.
