Sanitation Rules

Rules to follow when placing your poly cart at the curb for trash pick-up:

- Bagged trash, including grass clippings must be bagged and placed inside a polycart for pick-up. Bagged trash set by the curb will not be picked up. Through the duration of the State of Emergency, or June 30th, whichever is longer, the City will reduce the second cart fee to $7.00 for those customers who order or previously ordered a second cart. (Effective April 19th, 2020)
- All household trash must be in a poly cart
- No automotive parts
- No petroleum products or hazardous chemicals
- Carts must be out by 7:00 am on pickup day
- Four Holidays are observed during the year. New Years Day, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day. If your trash day falls on one of the Holidays, place your cart out on Wednesday of that week.
- Remove your cart from the street by end of day
- Nothing sticking out of the cart

- No building materials (tile, bricks, boards, concrete, rocks, dirt, etc.)
- Do not place your cart under any overhead obstruction
- Do not overfill or place items on top of the cart and the lid must be closed
- Do not place your cart within 3 feet of any obstruction
- Break down cardboard and place loosely in cart
- For large items please call Public Works at (405) 793-5070 and schedule a Big Trash pickup. This service is free twice per year.
